AI'S HOUSE AT ST. LOUIS DECIDED ON

Lanais, Cool Rooms, the Ideal Hawaiian Residence, Is Recommended.

by Carter Selects a Good Location
Eng States and Territories, and Thinks
$5,000 Enough for Structure.

AI'S PROPOSED FAIR BUILDING.

Had, cool, inviting lanais will be among the principal of the building proposed for Hawaii at the St. Louis on next year. It is suggested that Hawaii's building be indicative, in outward appearances, of the enjoyable life to be found in almost any part of the group, an element to all the 25,000,000 people who are expected to see Fair, that the climate of Hawaii is such that upon lanais, our people spend a good part of their lives. The Exposition Committee agreed yesterday that a one-story building, a composite of the typical Hawaiian residence of the islands, with broad lanais, sloping roof and large rooms, more fairly represent the Islands than a building of more elaborate design, but reflecting nothing of the island life. The building also would show home adornment in Honolulu, with its tiled roof, composed of tapas, fine mats, fans, and other objects, handiwork of the present day Hawaiians, giving an idea of the practical use to which the leaves of so many tropical plants can be put. An array of photographs showing the life of the islands, residences, business blocks, harbors, recreation grounds, beach amusements the year round, most anything that the camera will take, would give the building an attractive appearance. Above all such a building as designed to be the most restful and cosy in appearance, the state and territory buildings, inviting passersby to sit in and get a cup of Kona coffee. The building would be a headquarters, and tons of literature on Hawaii is provided to be stored within that it can be used to the best advantage in advertising Greater Hawaii.

A meeting of the Hawaiian Exposition Committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, a decision was reached to erect a building for the Hawaiian exhibits to cost not exceeding $5,000.

G. Irwin presided, Jas. G. Spence being the secretary. Those present were W. O. Smith, A. Gartley, S. B. D. Tenney, F. M. Swanzy, H. A. Gilman, D. P. R. Isenberg, Herbert Mr. Beardslee, F. W. Macfarlane.

Mr. Macfarlane read a letter he had received from George Carter. Mr. Macfarlane had persuaded Mr. Carter to go to St. Louis and go over the grounds as this would result in reliable information. Mr. Carter stated that out a building the exhibit would be divided. A building could be had for $5,000. Mr. Carter's recommendations were as follows:

First of all it will be best for you to have a special sugar exhibit, a general exhibit, and a general exhibit of all other matters pertaining to agriculture and horticulture in the building, and an educational exhibit in a building in order that it compete, and an ethnological exhibit under the division of anthropology. In addition to this a building should be in with the other States and Territories near the second entrance, after an ideal Hawaiian home, furnished accordingly. This would be a headquarters for Hawaii, a place for distributing literature and directing the exhibits in the larger building.

F. W. Taylor, in charge of the agricultural building, proposes to make exhibits of certain products, such as cotton, wheat, sugar, etc., and will agree to join, submit your plans to him and he will decide whether they are more worthy than that offered from Louisiana sugar producers.

A second proposition, which if carried out, I think you will not feel that it was so good, is to have a building down near the Alaskan exhibit, in which to concentrate the entire exhibit. This can be done, if you so decide by communicating with Chas. M. Reeves, who is secretary of the committee on territorial exhibits. This is against the rule, but an exception will be made as has been done with Alaska. But this means to forfeit all rights to compete for rewards and prizes. This would not suit the Board of Education as they have a good chance for a high reward, and they ought to go in the educational building anyway.

"Now, that I have been on the grounds, I think you will agree that we were entirely in the wrong in Honolulu, and that your best plan is 'no building, no exhibit' for in every case the building is the thing that identifies the community and will be of the greatest value."

Mr. Macfarlane said the idea was to put the educational exhibit into the educational building to compete for the prize. He advocated a $5,000 structure. It was figured that 25,000,000 people would go through the fair grounds and it would be a depot for the distribution of literature on the Islands.

He suggested to the Association to take the place Carter has recommended. He thought the $5,000 could be taken out of the $30,000. There were to be no junketing trips, no champagne suppers, etc. He knew that Mr. Irwin had to figure close on his appropriation. He felt that a building such as Mr. Carter suggested was the best policy. The officials would not permit the distribution of literature in the big buildings, and this could be done in the Hawaiian building. Mr. Macfarlane said he had secured Mr. Thompson of the Bishop Museum to make models of Hawaiian fishes. Jared Smith is to put up the fruit for Hawaii, as well as for the United States. His work is well done. A relief map of Pearl Harbor was to be made. Mr. Rosenstein has looked it over. He has a complete survey of the whole of Pearl Harbor, and will put in the buildings, fortifications and dry dock, as well as a 15,000-ton battleship. The latter would look like a pin head. This would cost about $400. There was also proposed a profile map of a complete sugar plantation.

REPUBLICANS TALK TO MANY BIG CROWDS

Sheriff Brown Punctures Statements Made by Wilcox—Candidates Warming Up to Campaign Issues.

Republicans were again out in force last night and held large meetings in Kalihi, Palama and Kakaako. Everywhere the speakers made promises which the Republican administration would verify by its acts, and the Home Rulers were given a few body blows, especially Wilcox's tale about what he would not do with lepers if he were High Sheriff.

AT ACHI'S WAREHOUSE.

The meeting at Achi's warehouse was presided over by Charley Clark, who first introduced A. M. Brown. The latter had a rousing reception. He said the Republican party in 1902 promised county government which pledge it had redeemed. It was no more than fair that the voters should give the Republican party the opportunity to put the law into effect. He said he did not care to boast about himself, but the men on the Republican ticket were men of experience in the government and for that reason should be elected. He likened county government to the breaking in of a new horse. When a man wanted a horse broken, he did not go to a taro planter to have it done, he went to a horse trainer. He promised that if the ticket was elected they would have the horse well broken. The county would be full of trouble and it would take men of brains, experience and money backing to start it. The money was all behind the Republican party and they would put up the cash to run the government if it went behind. If the Home Rulers were elected he doubted if they could get the money to pay the employees and carry on government work. This would cause hardship to the natives. He said Wilcox had made the statement that if he (Wilcox) was elected he would not arrest lepers, but Wilcox showed his ignorance here, for the Board of Health agents did the arresting in such cases and not the police. In his department there were eight Hawaiians employed to every white man. The sheriff said he was as good a Hawaiian as Wilcox. His speech was given applause that could be heard for blocks.

RENTON TALKS.

"Roosevelt" Renton was then introduced. He said a new era had dawned in Hawaii, that following out the principles of the Republican party the last legislature gave the people a county bill which put the government in the hands of the people. It was a great responsibility on the shoulders of the voters to elect men who could meet the duties of the different offices honestly, judiciously and intelligently.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Jack Lucas made a speech in Hawaiian which was witty and he kept the audience in good humor throughout. R. N. Boyd spoke and he was followed by Judge Hookano. S. E. Damon spoke about as he did at Holt's place. J. W. Pratt followed and in his speech quoted the following words of Roosevelt:

"We must act upon the motto of all for each and each for all. There must be ever present in our minds the fundamental truth that in a republic such as ours the only safety is to stand neither for nor against any man because he is rich or because he is poor, because he is engaged in one occupation or another, because he works with his brains or because he works with his hands. We must treat each man on his worth and merits as a man. We must see that each is given a square deal, because he is entitled to no more, and should receive no less. Finally, we must keep ever in mind that a republic such as ours can exist only in virtue of the orderly liberty which comes through the equal domination of the law over all men alike, and through its administration in such resolute and fearless fashion as shall teach all that no man is above it and no man below it."

Harry Murray made a rattling good speech and was given hearty applause.

W. T. Rawlins entertained the audience with an excellent address which was well received and he was frequently interrupted by applause and cheers. He caused a laugh by saying that his father "made the stuff that kept the country clean—soap"—and he if elected would keep the county clean of rogues. Charles Clark told the audience that, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, he was a Republican, and would remain a Republican, and work for the success of the entire Republican ticket.

There were about 200 present.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB READY FOR WORK

Endeavors Will Be Made to Establish Its Headquarters in a Down-Town Section, Preferably Opposite the Young Building.

The Young Men's Republican Club will take an active part in the County campaign, and the endeavor will be made to have its influence felt as much as in the campaign of last year. A meeting of the executive committee of the club was held yesterday afternoon at the Republican headquarters, President Lorrin Andrews presiding, P. R. Helm secretary.

It was decided that the club should go into the campaign at once, and aid the County Committee as much as possible. Chairman Henry of the County Committee has asked that the club make an active canvass.

The question of a headquarters was discussed and it was decided that owing to the shortness of the campaign, a tent might be secured to be erected down-town, preferably in the vacant premises opposite the Young building, or on Fort street, above the Club Stables. The Bishop Estate premises, it was agreed, would be a most desirable place, being centrally located, and big rallies could be conducted in the tent, with plenty of standing room outside. A committee was appointed to procure a tent if possible, and also to secure the consent of the owners of the premises to their use until November 2.

President Lorrin Andrews was appointed to investigate the question of finances.

The Young Men's Republican Club will possibly commence work next week, and a rousing rally of all the precincts will be had.

CHINESE LAWYER BADLY DONE UP.

Ng Mon War, a Chinese practitioner in the lower courts well known for his long service as clerk with the late Paul Neumann, is in the Chinese hospital with a smashed nose from assault.

The victim ran into trouble yesterday afternoon when he encountered three fellow-countrymen. Ah On, the Chinese special policeman, gave the following statement of the matter to an Advertiser reporter last night:

"The trouble began two months ago in the disturbance that took place at a meeting of the See Yip Society. On that occasion the interference of Officer W. Vida and myself prevented murder from being committed.

"Yesterday afternoon three men of the Ying Yee Tong met Ng Mon War at the corner of Hotel and Maunakea streets. They were armed with brass knuckles, with which they attacked Ng Mon War. His nose was smashed. Yes, the bone was broken.

"Lau Chew, one of the assailants, was arrested. The two others escaped to a camp on Honolulu plantation. They can be identified. Lau Pui is the name of one, but I cannot remember the name of the other.

"Lau Chew said after he was arrested that Ng Mon War owed him $100. Ng Mon War is a See Yip. At the Police Station other men were brought in with Lau Chew.
